

LinkEducation's 6th Annual K-12 Education Expo

MARCH 10, 2012

Saturday March 10th, 10am-3pm
Kimmel Center, NYU, 60 Washington Square South

Attendance is FREE!

RSVP at www.linkeducation.org/educationexpo

The K-12 Education Expo is a great event for families, educators, administrators and anyone with a passion for education. Make this an outing your whole school or family can enjoy: with educational workshops, kid-friendly activities, book signing with free books and representatives from over 40+ education programs, the K-12 Expo is not to be missed!

10:00am: Book Reading and Signing

Listen to C. Alexander London read from the first book in his Accidental Adventure series, We Are Not Eaten By Yaks. He will answer audience questions after the reading and will sign books (provided to you for FREE) at the Penguin Young Readers table.

10:00am - 2:00pm: Workshops

Join us for workshop sessions covering topics such as:

- How to Bring Nutrition Balance into your Life by Red Rabbit
- Fostering Curiosity at Home and at School by John Barell
- Literacy Tips by Bonnie Bader, Executive Director of Penguin Young Readers Group
- Managing Difficult Behavior: For Elementary Students by Ramapo for Children
- Managing Difficult Behavior: For Middle and High School Students by Ramapo for Children
- Bring a Garden to your School by New York Botanical Garden
- Parenting Tips by Keith Morton
- Arts Exploration Workshop by Arts Horizons
- Engineering Design Challenge by Iridescent Learning

With more to come!

10:00am - 2:00pm: Performances

Children are invited to participate in fun activities including:

- Story Pirates will perform age-appropriate improv for kids!
- Make a Bog with a Venus Fly Trap! hosted by the New York Botanical Gardens
- Children's yoga by Little Flower Yoga

With more to come!

Current
Sponsors:

The Teagle Foundation

